

Code of Conduct

Introduction

This document describes the overall code of conduct expected by AMAF in the execution of its plans, projects and in its dealings and communications with stakeholders and the general public.

Application This Policy applies to all employees, officers, director, representatives and volunteers of AMAF, herein collectively referred to as AMAF representatives.

Code AMAF representatives are expected to comply with behaviours that are documented in AMAFs policies relating to

- Dealings with Stakeholders (reference to Developmental Activities Policy, Emergency Management Policy)
- Dealings with other AMAF representatives (reference to Human Resources Policy, Complaints Handling Policy, Volunteer Management Policy)
- Providing health and safety for AMAF representatives (reference to Human Resources Policy)
- Protecting confidential information (reference to Privacy Policy)
- Handling conflicts of interests (reference to Conflicts of Interest Policy)
- Maintaining integrity and governance (reference to Risk Management, Fraud Risk Management, Ethical Fund Raising)
- Protection of children (reference to Child Protection Policy)
- Prevention of sexual exploitation and abuse (reference to Prevention of Sexual

Exploitation and Abuse Policy

Staff and volunteers are to report suspected violations of this Code of Conduct.

Authorisation Board of Directors

Created 26 September 2020